

Private Dietitian Services

Healthy Living NT are now providing private dietitian services for people living with a range of medical conditions who may benefit from nutrition advice.

Dietitians can help with:

- elevated cholesterol or blood pressure
- weight management
- malnutrition
- disordered eating
- food allergies and intolerances
- gastrointestinal conditions
- liver and kidney disease

Fees for these private dietitian services are listed below. GP Management Plan referrals are accepted to subsidise costs for those living with a chronic condition. See your doctor to ask if you are eligible for a GP Management Plan.

Reduced fees are available for those with an eligible Commonwealth concession card or Healthy Living NT membership.

Those with private health insurance may be able to claim a rebate for full fee consultations, depending on level of cover.
